GOULD PARENTS WEEKEND HOSTS OVER 350 GUESTS

Over 350 parents and other members of their families visited Gould Academy in Bethel for the school's Annual Fall Parents Weekend. Despite the threat of cold weather expected for such a late date in October, the temperatures were relatively mild and everyone enjoyed the crisp, clear air that was prevalent on Saturday during the day-long sporting events and chicken barbecue.

On Friday evening and again on Saturday morning, parents had the opportunity to visit with faculty members to discuss their son or daughter's progress in the first marking period, which had just been completed. Since 95% of Gould's students come from out-of-town, out-of-state, or out-of-the-country, those who were able to attend appreciated this direct contact with those teachers responsible for their child's educational development.

A special symposium entitled "Meeting Needs" was added to the Saturday morning program. Panelists included faculty and students and the topic under discussion was addressed to how Gould Academy, as an independent, boarding school, meets the educational and extra curricular needs continued on Page Eight

BOY SCOUT ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3

Did your son ever say, "Gee-whiz, I wish I was old enough to join the Boy Scouts?" Well, here is his chance, and it is hoped that he will want to be a member of the Boy Scout Troop that is being organized in this community.

Boy Scouting is the program of the Boy Scouts of America for boys 11 years and older. The program provides common interest for boys and parents. Activities are built around the outdoor skills of hiking and camping. They build character and citizenship through the association with strong community leadership and help your son become more self-reliant.

Since Scouting requires the co-operation of parents, it is necessary for them to learn how they can help their son get the most out of this program. Boys and parents are invited to attend an orientation and organization meeting on Wednesday evening, Nov. 3, at 7 p. m. at the Bethel Fire Station. Trained members of the local Boy Scout Council will give a "bird's eye" view of Scouting. If you are interested, please put the date on your calendar now and plan to attend. For more information contact Ernest Perkins, District Commissioner, 824-2767, or Ray Harrington, Scoutmaster, 824-2698.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

There is so much lasting beauty on a farm among the common things.

On a morning early, recently, about 4 o'clock, I heard a sound in the distance that aroused me from sleep. I listened more closely—wild geese flying low. Their honking voices filled the air. They were seeking a warmer climate, flying in the dark without compass or a map to guide the way. Their chartered course, they always seem to know. What is it that guides them, when they roam? Who taught them their form of flight? I thought that maybe they'd stop for a while on the pond, but no, they flew on, vagabonds of the sky.

Another day I climbed the hills through the woods. I could hear distinctly, the clash of leaves, when the breath of a breeze stirred among the branches. There was the fine sifting sound of dropping spruce and pine needles. The fallen leaves crumbled and crisp rustled beneath my feet.

At the top of the hill I went to find Rock Lake; so named because of a dip in its top, which fills with water when the sky weeps. Its entrance had changed with the years and was somewhat cut off. The view of the valley was no longer as broad because of the tree growth. However I sat for some time "on the shore of the lake." I looked out across to the hazy blue hills, colors now more faded or gone. There were sounds and solitudes which were mostly within.

Presently a jay alighted on a branch and a chickadee fluttered away. Jay threw a "Tchah!" after her. Chickadee knew Jay's dominance. The jay then relaxed on a shady bough and immediately, there bounded up in him a desire to make himself handsome. Was he performing for me? He oiled his beak in the gland on his rump and pulled his beak down his feathers with a quick sort of sawing touch. His feathers became smooth and glossy. Then he did a whirling motion which flattened them. He was handsome! I think he knew it. His grooming had given him a splash of magnificent blue. This blue seemed more intense against the dark of his head and his breast necklace. His manner became equally brilliant, for he flipped about, snapped his wings and turned from side to side in dramatic motions. He tossed his head and the brightness glinted along his beak. A cry that seemed to explode in his throat was his next act. Something caused him to give a warning cry to other creatures near. The cry rang out over the rock. Again he screamed! He thought that he was master over all. But I'm sure he disliked me, now, because I did not heed his voice, did not become frightened, like prey animals, or run away like predators. He found that he was not master of the Lake, while a human being was there, so he rose to perch in a cluster of fir branches. He sat with no motion except the turn of his head and eyes.

Directly below a squirrel appeared and sat upright, paws folded upon her breast. I wondered if Jay would again scream just to see her run. If he thought about it, he didn't. He was satisfied with the events thus far. His ego needed no further proving.

I, too, moved on, up through a wall gap, going toward home. I guided my footsteps toward the huge maple where I had seen recently that big, big animal resting on a limb, head in a hole, tail beneath him, right where I could have patted him. This timberline tree is centuries old and shows its age.

"Where cloud-seas billow and sky-winds sweep And peak-isles suffer in surges deep

A storm-scarred, sun-bleached veteran stands Defying death with its bony hands.

Twisted of body and gnarled of limb, Figure pathetic but none less grim;

Weather-worn, stunted and lashed to stone— Guard of the timberline stands alone.

Time-tempered slowly by night and day, Tried by the Maker in every way—

The nobleness of an ancient tree Is an inspiration 'e'er to me."

Stanley Foss Bartlett from "Lost Hours"

FROM THE BETHEL AREA HEALTH CENTER

— Pauline Smith, Corres. —

The Bethel Area Health Center announces the offering of a patient education program for patients with high blood pressure.

Hypertension or high blood pressure is the most common of the diseases affecting the heart and blood vessels. Contrary to widely held belief, high blood pressure is not necessarily related to being nervous or high strung. Estimates of the number of individuals in the U. S. who have high blood pressure range from 23 to 60 million.

According to the National High Blood Pressure Education Program, at least one third of those with hypertension do not know that they have it. High blood pressure is a common silent problem. People are unaware that they have it because they feel perfectly well.

However, the problems resulting from untreated high blood pressure can be deadly. The most common complications are stroke, heart failure and kidney disease.

Control of high blood pressure reduces the likelihood of these complications arising. It is estimated that these problems cost the nation $30 billion annually in direct medical costs and lost income through illness, disability, premature loss of productivity and death.

Because of the high number of people with high blood pressure, the fact that hypertension once detected and treated can usually be controlled, the Bethel Area Health Center is offering patient education in hypertension along with regular medical care.

The health center providers are aware that there are many different types of hypertensive patients. Patients will be referred by their regular health care provider to the patient educator who will then work with the patient and the provider to develop a program which will meet the specific educational and medical needs of that patient.

For those who have Medicaid and Medicare—the program will be covered by these insurances.

The program is being run by Muriel Whitney R. N. who has worked with the Center many times in the past on health education programs. She will be at the Center from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m. on Wednesdays. Anyone who is now being treated for high blood pressure at the Center may call for an appointment or for further information.

Letters to the Editor

Nonway, Maine 04268
Oct. 20, 1982

To the Editor:

As an independent voter and as election time draws near, I am more interested in examining candidate's previous voting records, when available, than in listening to partisan campaign rhetoric. On June 26, the "Lewiston Daily Sun" published the voting record of area Representatives to Maine's 10th Legislature. Only three members of the House of Representatives had perfect records voting in all 478 roll calls. Briefly, the record of roll call votes missed by area representatives is as follows: Bell, Republican—South Paris, missed none; Klesman, Republican—Fryeburg, missed one; Perry, Democrat—Rumford, missed two; Jackson, Republican—Harrison, missed eight; Erwin, Democrat—Rumford, missed nine; Brown, Republican—Bethel, missed 19; Twitchell, Democrat—Norway, missed 52. While a perfect voting record is an unusual feat, it behooves the voters to elect candidates who will be present to express the wishes of their constituents.

To the Editor:

We would like to tell about the help Karen Brown has given us in resolving a State agency problem.

Leslie and I both feel her support made all the difference in a favorable decision.

Our sincere appreciation for her efforts. It is comforting to know that area people have such a caring and capable young woman representing us.

Sincerely yours,

To the Editor:

I'm the mother of a Woodstock student and I'm scared. I'm scared every morning when I drop my daughter off at school. She spends her schooldays in what I consider, an unsafe structure. I look up at that old three-story building and silently pray that the day goes by without a calamity.

I'm scared that the voters of the other towns in the school district will think they are "tightening the belt" if they vote no on spending around $57,000. from S.A.D. 44 for a new school.

I'm scared that they won't see how energy-wise a new school would pay itself back in a few years or that it would cost S.A.D. 44 twice as much over the next 20 years to upkeep the old building compared to our share of the new building price, its heat and maintenance.

But, above all, I'm scared that they can put a price tag on the safety of my child. Her well-being is worth a hundred times the total price of a new school. Now multiply that times the number of students and the voters should have their answer.

Please vote "yes" for the Woodstock school. The mothers and fathers of the students need peace of mind.

Sincerely,
Doreen Johnson

To the Editor:

On Nov. 2, voters in M.S.A.D. 44 will have a chance to vote on the proposed construction of a new Elementary School in the Town of Woodstock. The facts, as presented by the Superintendent of Schools and the Board of Directors, seem to make this construction a wise move.

However, before voting on the issue, I feel that the voters should stop and consider what would happen if the State should reduce or discontinue the School Building Assistance Program. The last Legislature passed a Block Grant Program, which turned back to the Towns to maintain State Aid Roads, which had been built jointly by the State and Towns, with the understanding that the State would maintain them after they were built. It also took away the Snow Removal Reimbursement and Town Road Improvement monies to the Towns. Sure, it provides some road assistance money to the Towns, but in most cases it is much less than under the old system. The State also has drastically reduced the Inventory Tax Reimbursement. One year the Legislature passed a resolve, that since the State was short of funds, they would pay the Towns only 85% of the amount due them on the Tree Growth Tax Reimbursement.

If the state can cut these payments, which they had a moral obligation, if not a legal obligation to the Towns, they can just as well reduce, or cut completely, the payments on the School Building Program. Voters should remember that it is the School Administrative District, not the State, that signs the Bonds, and the District, not the State that is legally bound to make the payments.

Estimated cost of the new school is $1,125,000. $66,250 of this amount would be raised in the District. If approved by the voters, the District would issue notes or bonds in the amount of $1,068,750. Under the present program, the State would make payments on these bonds to the District, which then make these payments. However if the State should cut, or eliminate this program, as they have others in the past, the District would have to make the payments from funds appropriated by the five towns in the District.

Sincerely,
Roger E. Hanscom

To the Editor:

Is Rep. Karen Brown doing the job we elected her to do? Thanks to the Maine Assoc. of Independent Neighborhoods (M.A.I.N.) we are able to print the voting record of our representative. Please study carefully. Is this a record for the people of District 63?

Karen Brown voted:
Against—The Jobs Bill (to provide welfare recipients with training and jobs to help eliminate their need for assistance).
Against—To Prohibit Housing Discrimination Against Children.
Against—Omnibus Landlord Tenant Bill (to strengthen current law).

Against—Used Car Information Act.
Against—To Require Smoke Detectors in Apartments.
Against—To Remove Customer Service Charges levied by Electric Utilities.
Against—H.O.M.E. Governor's House Bill—Low interest loans on low and moderate class.

All of the above laws were passed by the Legislature. Is this a record in the interest of the people of District 63? Isn't it time for a change?

Vote for Emily Saunders on Nov. 2 and elect a concerned, compassionate representative.

Yours truly,

To the Editor:

In 1941 I came to Bryant Pond to begin my teaching career. My first assignment was at the Woodstock Central School. Although not a new structure, the facility served the needs of students from Grades K to 12. Little thought was given to fuel bills as coal was cheap. The windows rattled and the rooms were drafty. Floors were protected by oiling the boards. There was storage space in the attic and the basement housed vehicles and supplies. The staff members were aware of the risk of fire. At times, the water supply was inadequate. The "gym" was quite new having been built by the W.P.A. crew. It was heated by a wood furnace in one corner of the floor.

Forty-one years and many thousands of dollars later the Woodstock School still exists. It houses students from Grades K to 6. All three floors are being used for educational purposes. Inside stair wells are used for going from floor to floor. Basically the structure remains the same. Attempts have been made to find ways to safely evacuate the children in case of fire. The building has been insulated, but with so much glass, it is difficult to control heat loss. The old oiled floor boards have been covered.

Many starts have been made to "do something" about the Woodstock School. There is a thick file in Augusta of studies and applications that various School Boards have communicated to the State concerning this problem. The present S.A.D. 44 Board made a decision to put words into action. As we proceeded through the many phases of legalses to get our school project approved for state funding, we became more and more convinced that the only reasonable solution to the many problems was to replace the existing building with a new one. The State Board was not only receptive, but after their evaluation of the situation, placed our project as No. 2 on their priority list of new construction.

This new school project will benefit children by providing a facility that is reasonably free from fire hazard; is accessible to the handicapped; has a playground away from traffic; has a heated, all-purpose room that will serve as lunch-room, physical education area, music, art, drama facility, etc.; has a dependable water supply and sewerage disposal.

The project will benefit taxpayers by the realization of savings in fuel bills; in maintenance costs; in renovation costs.

Thanks go to the staff of S.A.D. 44 and citizens of the District for the splendid job they have done in maintaining the present facility. I have emotional ties to this facility as I know many others do, but it is time for change. We can no longer afford the money needed to maintain the present set-up.

You have been bombarded with complicated formulas and forbidding looking lists of numbers. Feel free to call your Board member if you need explanations. It appears that we have finally reached the top of the list and it is our turn to have some of our tax monies returned. I urge you to vote YES on the school referendum. It will save you a great deal of money over the next 20 years.

Sincerely,
Eva C. Twitchell
S.A.D. 44 Board Chairman

To the Voters of Andover, Bethel, Greenwood, Newry and Woodstock:

According to the State Department of Education the following are the Woodstock school costs:
Architect fees $55,000, Soil evaluation $5,000, Land $7,500, Fees (legal, ins., etc.) $5,000; ($72,500).
Site development $47,500, Water $10,000, Sewer $20,000; ($77,500).
Building $775,000, Fixed equipment $60,000, Moveable equipment $20,000; ($855,000).
Project manager $25,000, Contingency fund $34,000, Moving costs, $2,000, Art—sculpture/mural etc. to be done by Maine artist, $9,000; ($120,000).
Total project, $1,125,000.

The State bond of $1,068,750 will be purchased for a 15 year period at perhaps 10% interest and will mean an additional cost of close to $780,000. Therefore total costs to taxpayers will be about two million dollars for this project.

The information published by the papers, at no cost, and the direct mail sent to residents, at some cost have been in favor of this construction. We have been informed that the savings would be substantial. Maintenance on the new building is to be $10,000 over a 20 year period, $500 per year. I find this noteworthy in light of present costs for maintaining ordinary small homes that undoubtedly suffer less wear and tear than a school building.

School officials must naturally look to school expansion as desirable, taxpayers must look at affordability and municipal officials must look at total town needs. With the economy of the state depressed and unemployment high we are faced with difficult decisions not the least of which is "can we afford it now" and is it "absolutely necessary now". Local money—state money—it is "us" that pays—local and state.

With dropping enrollments, due to family planning, etc., and schools being closed all over the state (re: the new Rumford Center School), we should give this new school construction careful consideration. It will be the District (our member towns) that will sign for the issuance of the bonds—they will be our responsibility for payment if the State changes its participation.

Please think and VOTE.
Patricia C. Dooen
Bethel Selectman

To the Editor:

On Tuesday, Nov. 2, we once again can exercise the democratic privilege of voting.

One candidate seeking election is R. Donald Twitchell of Norway, for the District 5 Senatorial seat. Don is a dedicated and sincere businessman, who has been in the House of Representatives for 10 years, representing the towns of Greenwood, Norway, Oxford and Albany.

Don has established himself as the senior member of Maine Senate & House Taxation Committee, voting for the people he represents, and not for a few leaders of special interest groups. Don has received the endorsement of the AFL/CIO, Maine Chamber of Commerce, Maine Merchants Association, and by United for Maine.

Experienced, respected, independently minded for all the people.

Let's not lose the services of such a dedicated public servant. On Nov. 2, mark your ballot where it counts, R. Donald Twitchell, District 5 Senator.

THIS WEEK AT THE MOSES MASON HOUSE

Students visiting the museum this week were third graders from Crescent Park School with their teachers Shirley Merrill and Barbara Ferguson. Society Director Stanley R. Howe spoke to them on the early history of Bethel.

Since its founding in 1974 the Moses Mason House has welcomed student groups to the Dr. Moses Mason House to learn something about the area's past through exposure to its rich collection of artifacts, slides of old photographs and exhibits. From the earliest days, the Bethel Historical Society accepted as part of its mission the responsibility of assisting students in understanding their past and encouraging an appreciation for those things associated with it. Several hundred students of all ages visit the museum each year to hear about the life and times of Dr. Moses Mason, to participate in a "What's It?" contest or to see authentic old-time craft demonstrations. In the past few years the popularity of these programs has grown to the extent that not only does it attract students from the local schools but others from Oxford Hills, Lake Region and Rumford. Unlike some institutions which impose a fee for this service, the Bethel Historical Society has always done this as a public service.

The 1983 Bethel Historical Society calendar is expected to be available this week. Anyone wishing one should stop by the Moses Mason House during regular business hours, 9 to 5 week days.

All volunteers who helped with the Museum during the past season are cordially invited to a vol-

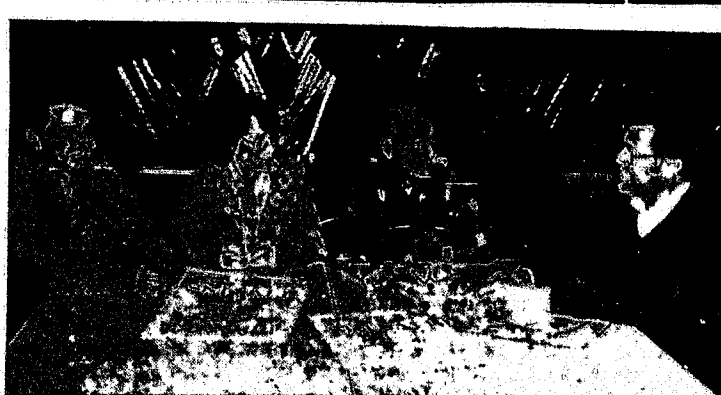

WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOC. RECEIVES WEIGHTS AND MEASURES - GIVES TOURS

The Woodstock Historical Society has been very fortunate to obtain the old weights and measures once used by the Town of Woodstock. They are very handsome and valuable historically. The Society was the appropriate place to preserve them for posterity.

And in regard to posterity, Curator Larry Billings was very honored by the visits of two classes from the Woodstock Elementary School recently. They visited the museum and listened very attentively to information on town history. They are, after all, the citizens of tomorrow and will always be welcome at the museum, which is still on school property.

The Society is most grateful for the continued support of the Town and all its citizens, especially the younger ones.

unteer dinner Nov. 5 at 6:30 p.m. Members of the Bethel Historical Society are reminded of the monthly meeting to be held Thursday, Nov. 4, in the Moses Mason House meeting room at 7:30 p.m. The Society is grateful for a linen table cloth and bundle of flax, the gift of Mabel Stevens Greenleaf and Marah Stevens Webster. It was donated in memory of their sister Mina G. Stevens, for many years a teacher in the rural schools of Bethel and Newry. The thread for this cloth was spun from flax raised on the Elkins farm in Fayette, Maine. The cloth was woven by Mrs. Chase Elkins, great grandmother of the late Carey Stevens, long-time resident of Middle Intervale, Bethel.

BETHEL OUTING CLUB ANNUAL SKI SALE, NOV. 5-6

Following last year's successful venture, the Bethel Outing Club will hold its second annual ski equipment sale on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5 and 6 at the Telstar Regional High School Gymnasium.

Final plans were made at an Oct. 21 meeting for what promises to be a bigger and better endeavor with more major ski shops represented. Both ski shops and individuals will bring their items, alpine and nordic, to the gym on Friday afternoon, Nov. 5. At this time the items will be tagged for the sale which is to begin at 7 p.m. and go until 9 p.m. on Friday. Saturday, Nov. 6, hours will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

According to shop owners, tremendous bargains will be offered for the thrifty shopper. Not only ski equipment, but clothing, including boots, will be available at greatly reduced prices.

The Bethel Outing Club, a non-profit organization, supports nordic skiing and family-oriented activities in the Bethel area. The Club is involved in all aspects of local nordic skiing, such as Great Bethel's Junior Nordic Ski Development Program (for youths from ages 9 to 20), the Junior Recreational Ski Program, the Bill Koch Youth Ski League, and the Telstar Middle and High School ski teams.

In pursuit of funds to support and sponsor area ski events, this sale constitutes an important part of the club's money-raising effort. President Donald Angevine and his group have high hopes that a good turn-out on Nov. 5 and 6 will ensure the Club's continuing success in promoting area nordic skiing. While the ski equipment is on display a food sale will also be in progress, in addition to which free coffee and doughnuts (while they last!) will be offered.

M. S. A. D. #44 Superintendent's Newsletter

Dr. Wayne F. Gersen

On Tuesday, Nov. 2, the referendum on the construction of a new school to replace the Woodstock Elementary School will be conducted in the five towns of S. A. D. #44: Andover, Bethel, Greenwood, Newry and Woodstock. In that referendum, the S. A. D. #44 Board of Directors will be asking voter permission to issue bonds or notes in the name of S.A.D. #44 for $1,083,750 to construct a new elementary school on Rumford Ave., one mile north of Bryant Pond.

As described in earlier Superintendent's Newsletters, and indicated in the letter to voters from S.A.D. #44 Board Chairman Eva C. Twitchell, the construction of a new, energy efficient elementary school in Woodstock will save the taxpayers in S. A. D. #44 at least $250,000 over the next 20 years. These savings will result because of the reduce energy consumption and lower maintenance costs that will result if the Woodstock Elementary School is replaced.

During the past school year, Woodstock Elementary School used 13,000 gallons of fuel oil to heat the main building and the gymnasium. This reflected a 4,100 savings over previous years as a result of insulation projects completed in the Woodstock buildings during FY '81. This 13,500 gallon consumption, however, is 6,500 gallons above the amount of fuel that will be required to heat the proposed school building. Thus, S. A. D. #44 will save 6,500 gallons of fuel oil per year, or 250,000 gallons of fuel oil the next 20 years.

Additionally, if the existing buildings are retained, an estimated $102,000 in maintenance costs will be required over the next 20 years. The major maintenance projects that will be required in the next 20 years include: replacement of the heating system in both the main building and the gymnasium; replacement of the metal roof on the main buildings; improvements to the water delivery system; and, replacement of the carpeting in five of the classrooms. Funds for these maintenance projects would be raised through local property tax.

Based upon the public hearings conducted to date, the savings that can be realized are clear. The funding for the proposed construction, and cost figures for the building, however, are not so easily understood.

Each year, a certain amount of the state budget is set aside for building projects. School districts who feel that their buildings need to be improved or replaced submit building proposals to the state department for their review. The state department then visits the school buildings and rates them. Schools with high ratings are then reviewed by the State Board of Education, who grant concept approval to the schools that are, in their judgement, most in need of funds and make planning decisions for road repairs and maintenance in a timely, cost saving manner.

Bethel Water District Directors Robert Saunders and John Head met with the Board to discuss current activities of the District. Discussions centered on the Tyler Street water main renewal project and a tree cutting program on Water District land near the Newry town line. A new pipe was laid on Tyler Street to help circulate the water, increasing fire protection service for the area. The tree cutting program will involve "clear cutting" about 3,100 trees that were severely affected by saddle prominent caterpillars in 1981. These trees were marked by a professional forester for removal this winter.

The Board authorized the Manager to obtain estimates and design sketches for a sign stating "Bethel Town Office" to be hung on the facade of the Cole Block.

replacement or improvement. Schools that are granted concept approval are given first consideration for the allocation of state construction funds once they are approved through a local referendum.

S. A. D. #44 has completed this elaborate process during the past 18 months, and, therefore, will be eligible to receive state reimbursement for 95% of the building cost if the voters authorize the district to sell bonds for the construction, and, at the same time, agree to contribute to 5% of the building cost from local funds.

The $1,125,000 raised through the sale of bonds for $1,083,750, and local funds of $56,250 is the total cost for the new school. This cost includes the land, the development of the land (sewage, water, landscaping, driveway, etc.), the building and furnishings for the building. This cost also includes architect's fees, engineering fees, all contractors, builders, and personnel costs associated with the construction of a new elementary school in Woodstock.

The Board of Directors has made an effort to provide you with time to review the facts and figures associated with the referendum. If you have any questions on the referendum or the information that has been presented, please feel free to call me or any Board member in the next few days. I hope that you will cast a "YES" vote on the orange ballot on Tuesday, so that S. A. D. #44 can provide the students in Woodstock with a safe, energy efficient school.

AT POST'S MEMBERSHIP MEETING

MOLLOCKETT MIXERS

Mollockett Mixers of Rumford will hold their Square and Round Dance at the Rumford High School Oct. 30, from 8 to 11 p.m. Phil Adams will be caller with Wally Weeks cueing the rounds.

This sign will replace the lettered plate glass front window signs that were removed to make room for energy efficient thermopane windows.

In other action the Board approved a renewal license for Mundt-Allen Post, American Legion, to operate a game of chance (sealed tickets) for the period December 1982 through May 1983. Recommendations of the Radio Study Committee were approved to purchase a remote control terminal and a portable radio at a total cost of $925 for the CEP office and to ask for bids for three portable radios to be used by ambulance service "first responders".

The next regular meeting of the Board will be on Monday, Nov. 9, in the Bethel Savings Bank meeting room. On Nov. 15, in the first special meeting for that purpose, the Board will commence a round of meetings with members and officers of standing Town Boards and Committees.

books, Now I Know Monkeys, and

The Spelling Bee. After the stories the children did an art project then discussed how children and adults should behave in the Library. Mrs. Hutchins then took them upstairs where they pasted an "apple" with their names on the story hour tree. They explored the children's section and learned how to place books on the correct shelf. They then stamped papers with the Andover Public Library stamp pad and date band.

Present were Jared Flanders, Fred and Daniel Emerson, Joel and

Greg Peaslee, Emily McIntyre,

Bert and Kara Bartlett and Brian

Spaulding. Story hour will be held every Tuesday afternoon from 2:30 schoolers and kindergarten children are invited to attend.

tions of candy. If you wish to help out, you may leave the can-

Northwest Bethel

— Clarice Gibson, Corres. —

A beautiful week end although a little on the chilly side. The sky has been a brilliant shade of blue most of the week. The days are so much shorter but as I make the coffee and work in the kitchen mornings the view of the river is an ever-changing display of sunrise colors. As the sun gets higher the colors seem to fade and eventually are gone. Some mornings the fog from the river gives an almost eerie effect. Other mornings the blends of colors are so beautiful I want to capture them. After trying to take several pictures have found the picture can never do justice to the sunrises.

Thursday I picked up Teresa and we went shopping and had dinner at the folks and Sunday, the folks Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, Norway, came for dinner. Saturday, George climbed Specled Mountain going in from the Evans Notch side and Sunday, George, Frankie, Grace and Teresa took a trip to Hampton Falls, N. H., to see their grandmother, Mrs. Thirza Gibson, Aunt Bobby and Uncle Ed. They had a nice day to go.

Others present were Bob and Ginny Keniston, Elsie Davis, Peter Keniston and Stacey, Farmington. Cake and ice cream were served. Jim and Gail Sysko visited Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Shaw Sunday, and Saturday, Bob Keniston came and helped cut a couple of trees and stack them for firewood. Other Saturday visitors were Shama Matina and four of her friends from Montreal, Canada. Shama is a student at Gould Academy. Some of the riders were Scott's Grammie (Betty) Mills, Chuckie, Kathy, and three children and of course Little Scott with other friends.

Ruth Mason had her 47th birthday at her home Oct. 20, and the children stopped in to wish her a "happy" during the day.

Ruth and Melinda Mason with their horses went to Fred Warren's, Buckfield. There they went on a trail ride.

Before The Threshold Of My Day
I've much to do today, dear Lord,
But let me kneel a bit
Before the threshold of my day
That I may enter it
With mind serene and heart made fresh

With fragrant heavenly dew,
That every moment of the day
I'll be reflecting you.

Safety Tip of the Week: Halloween

Many children will be out trick or treating this week end, so please be careful and watch for them. This is an exciting time in their young lives. Let's make it safe for them. Remember back to when you were a child—Halloween meant fun for all and it should be that way now so please keep your eyes open and drive carefully—watching for those little ghosts or witches that could be running around.

It's a lovely Monday morning and the trees are nearly all bare so I guess it is Fall now. It's a good time to get the outside chores all done and things buttoned up for the long cold days ahead. Next Sunday, Oct. 31, we will set the clocks back one hour and hope to regain the hour's sleep that we lost in April. The babies will be waking up on fast time, no doubt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney of Massachusetts came with their two daughters to spend the week end at their farm near the Four Corners at Tull Town road. They have rented the farm to their friends.

Callers at Lawrences: Lena Dean, Raymond Bartlett, Arnold Coffin, Joe and Eveline Vatcher and Henrietta Morse.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Zinchuk, Shrimp and Marie Herrick, Charlotte Beauschene, Harlan Abbott and friend, Joe and Eveline Vatcher attended the Rescue Squad Booster's Club supper held at the American Legion Hall in Locke Mills, Saturday night. A delicious ham supper and a large crowd.

Hunting season will soon be with us and the woods will be full of the hunters. It opens in the northern part of Maine on Oct. 30, one week earlier than it does here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lawrence went to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett's on Wednesday evening to see the baby Amanda Jean Heath and to help Stevie Millett celebrate his "sweet 16th" birthday. Time goes right along.

The final supper at the hall will be on Oct. 30, a free pot luck for those who helped with the suppers during the summer. Each family will bring a dish for the supper, set for 5 p. m.

Rhoda Vatcher has been visiting her children in Massachusetts for the past 10 days and has returned to her home here.

Joe and Eveline Vatcher were at Berlin, N. H., on business and had a delicious feed at a restaurant.

Safety Tip of the Week—

Be careful of little ones dressed up as ghosts and goblins. Halloween is Sunday evening, yet the week end may be filled with children on the streets. Parents should go with small children and provide flashlights for all Trick-or-Treaters. Parents should also check food. No one wants the holiday to end in a tragedy.

The adults undergo the traditional driver education course, including the parallel parking, the drive to Rumford or South Paris, as well as the practice and preparation for the written examination. Mr. Neimi anticipates that his class will have mastered this skill and be able to go for their license upon completion of the course.

The Adult and Community Education Advisory Council will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 9, at 7 at Telstar Regional High School. The council will review plans for the Winter/Spring term, and will have as a special guest, Shirley Powell

SAILPLANING NEXT WEEK AT COL. DYKE FIELD

Bethel's Col. Dyke Field will see much activity next week as it becomes the base of operations for eight days of sailplaning by local and out of town glider enthusiasts. From Oct. 31 to Nov. 7, glider pilots and instructors will be available for pleasure flights and instruction in sailplaning. Craig Paul, local, and Dave Robinson, formerly of Bethel, now residing in Utah, will have available a glider and tow plane from Twitchell's Airport, Turner, and will offer rides and/or instruction.

Also at the airport next week will be Gregory Randall and a fiberglass ASW20 sailplane, attempting to set altitude records with his "state of the art machine" (direct quote from Dave Robinson). Altitude records will also be attempted by the others during this good fall soaring weather.

Anyone interested in participating or just observing is invited to visit the field. Appointments or further information are available by contacting Craig or Dave at 836-2554 or 824-3100.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE COUNSELING AVAILABLE AT BETHEL HEALTH CENTER

Drug and substance abuse counseling is available at the Bethel Area Health Center through an arrangement with the Tri County Mental Health Agency.

The misuse of alcohol and drugs among adults and to an increasing degree among young people is of particular concern to health providers. Not only does the misuse of alcohol and drugs increase risk of accidents and suicides, it also contributes to family disruption and poor school and job performance.

Becky Hardy who has extensive experience in substance abuse counseling is available on Thursday evening from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Bethel Area Health Center for free drop in service information and for folks to become acquainted with her.

Becky's background is very impressive. She received an M.S.W. from Western Michigan University with a specialty in Drug and Alcohol Abuse and has spent the last 4 1/2 years working as a counselor at York County Counseling and more recently at the Tri County Mental Health Service in Farmington.

THANK YOU

The Telstar Middle School Student Council would like to thank everyone who helped to support their annual magazine drive.

Of its 209 member student body. An outline of some of the Gould curriculum was introduced by faculty, with students responding as to how they were, and are being challenged and "stretched" to expand their knowledge.

Some of the comments told of the structure within each class or course, of the required homework and assignments that are handed in, and how the required study hall helps to teach discipline and organization in each subject area.

In the area of extra curricular activities and social life at Gould, the emphasis was on the ways of dealing with students who are at the school 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Life in the dormitories, the drama program, and all the sports teams present a different type of challenge and can provide a healthy release from academic pressures.

The Gould sports teams had an afternoon of mixed success with the women's soccer team downing Buckfield, while the men's varsity soccer lost to the Bates College JV team. The JV soccer team beat NYA, as did the women's JV field hockey team. The varsity field hockey and the men's 3rd soccer teams lost to NYA. The Gould cross country team placed 2nd in a field of four teams in their meet.

A reception for all parents, students, and faculty was then held in the Bingham Gymnasium following the last game. Everyone enjoyed the opportunity to warm up over a cup of coffee or tea and to talk further with faculty.

A drama production entitled "Variety Show" was put on at 8 o'clock Saturday night, by Mrs. Carol Fiske and Ms. Julie Eckles. Over 100 students and faculty were involved in the show which included comedy routines and musical numbers as well as some excellent dramatic pieces from well known Broadway shows.

During the week end, the Parents Association Advisory Council met regarding plans for Annual Giving in 1982-83 and the spring Parents Week end to be held May 13-14, 1983. The Annual Parents Auction and Silent Art Auction will be held at that time as well as the careers day seminars for all Gould's students.

LITERACY VOLUNTEERS TO MEET NOV. 3

On Wednesday, Nov. 3, there will be a meeting for all persons in Oxford County who either have been trained as Literacy Volunteers, or who would like such training. The meetings will begin at 7 p.m. in the Telstar Regional High School library.

Literacy Volunteers is a statewide nonprofit organization which trains volunteers to teach reading to adults who read below the fifth grade level. The program also included a training and tutoring component in English as a Second Language (E. S. L.).

More than 70,000 adults in Maine read below the fourth grade level and cannot perform such every day activities as reading simple instructions, making a shopping list, writing checks, filling out applications, using a phone book, or reading to a child. A literacy volunteer tutor can help a student attain his goals by providing free and confidential instruction on an individual basis. The tutor and student meet at a time and place convenient to both.

In much of Oxford County, the LitVol program is coordinated by Linda Hertell, Director of Adult Basic Education for the areas encompassing S.A.D. #17, the South Paris area, and S.A.D. #44, the Bethel area. Ms. Hertell expects the meeting to provide an opportunity for all interested persons to learn more about Literacy Volunteers and to determine the training needs of present and future LitVol members, while offering a chance for members to share their experiences and concerns with other tutors.

CARD OF THANKS

At this time we would like to thank everyone for their concern, prayers, cards and kindnesses that we have received since the accident. It has been a great comfort to us all at this time knowing that people really do care. A special thanks to the Bethel Ambulance Service for their quick response.

Also we are pleased to say that Stan is on the road to recovery and doing very good. He has been moved from the Special Care Unit to the regular part of the hospital. God Bless you all.
